

6. Ministry of External Affairs

Agenda – Addressing the Indo-China Relationship in the Light of Recent Border Incursions

The Indo-China conflict is not new and has existed since 1959 when India decided to give asylum to the Dalai Lama. It has even come to a war in 1962. Since then, there have been many violent border skirmishes. The conflict intensifies in 2020 when Indian and Chinese soldiers clashed in the Galwan valley. In this committee, the delegates are expected to deliberate on this pertinent issue to conclude with radical solutions keeping in mind all aspects such as trade, business, foreign relations, peace, security, etc. soldiers clashed in the Galwan valley. In this committee, the delegates are expected to deliberate on this pertinent issue to conclude with radical solutions keeping in mind all aspects such as

N GOPALASWAMI - TAMIL NADU	CHARU SINHA - KASHMIR
ARVIND DAVE - MANIPUR	BIPIN RAWAT - UTTARAKHAND
MM NARAVANE - MAHARASHTRA	RATAN TATA - JHARKHAND
RAKESH KUMAR SINGH BHADAURIA - UTTAR PRADESH	KULDEEP SINGH - WEST BENGAL
JYOTI PRASAD RAJKHOWA - ARUNACHAL PRADESH	JASPAL SINGH - GOA
AJIT DOVAL - DELHI	RAJIV MEHRISHI - RAJASTHAN
PRABHAKAR ALOK - TELANGANA	VC SAJJANAR - ANDHRA PRADESH
RAJINDER KHANNA - MEGHALAYA	RANJAN GOGOI - ASSAM
SUBHRO KAMAL MUKHERJEE - KARNATAKA	KAILASH SATYARTHI - MADHYA PRADESH
DEVRAJ ANBU - TAMIL NADU	KAMALA BENIWAL - GUJARAT

trade, business, foreign relations, peace, security, etc.